

North Hill Neighborhood Council Meeting
Meeting December 11, 2025
Called to order at 6:30pm

Attendees

Scot, Laura, Dan, Amber (ONS), Sandy, Dawn, Janet, Drew (STA), Mike, Judy, Colleen, Pat, Tyler, Caitlin, Megan, Jasmine, Todd, Alexa, Kitty

Introductions

Scot Webb

Everyone introduced themselves by name, their relation to the council, the cross streets they live on and how long in relation to the neighborhood.

Proposed and approved motions to the current agenda were presented and approved.

Office of Neighborhood Services (ONS)

Amber Groe

Snow removal reminder, park on the odd side of the street.

The federal shutdown has stalled our bench progress for Ruth Park.

Green yard waste bins to be put on hiatus until spring.

Spokane Neighborhood Leadership Academy (SNLA) applications are being accepted.

STA Presentation

Drew Redman

Route changes in the coming year. 12 routes are being diverted near Lewis & Clark high school. Peaceful Valley neighborhood will be losing route 20 near Clark Avenue. Northeast Hillyard extending route 33. Maple/Ash route 23, realigned to Belt for service the Shadle shopping center. Route 36 extends to the North/South freeway and to the distribution centers along Freya.

Traffic Calming/Cleanup Report

Mike Flahaven

Cleanup to keep occurring in the new year.

BSN/ Budget Report

Dan Brown

Community Assembly 101 will offer workshops throughout the coming year.

Community Assembly hosts the Good Neighbor awards.

Neighborhood Resource closet to keep operating at the location near Yokes.

Community Assembly Report

Laura Newman

Urban Forestry updates from the year. New and old trees. Betty Wilkerson gave an update on the budget, no cuts for public funds. STA updates to the 25 route along Division.

City Council Report

Kitty Klitzke

Arts Commission to add staff that will make an arts plan that in turn award funding to projects.

New/ Old Business

Scot Webb

Garland Creative District will continue to move forward, plans to meet up soon to halt the hiatus.

Funds will be used to fix sidewalks. A meeting will be held to find a plan to improve the lighting along the Garland Business District.

A new employee will work with Monroe, Garland, and SIMBA to improve infrastructure.

Treasurer's Report.

$487.09 in our treasury

Meeting adjourned at 7:20pm

Holiday potluck took place after the meeting